

1. Let's see if you are creative enough! Read the introduction and then answer the questions.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT!

Did you know that at Oxford university interview questions are not conventional? Why? There is a very simple reason, they believe that interviews are not about reciting what you already know; they are designed to give candidates a chance to show their real ability and potential. Applicants' responses do not have to be "right" but they must be creative, containing new ideas. Are you creative? Answer the questions and we'll see!

1. Would it be a big problem if tigers became extinct?
2. If you invented a new musical instrument, what kind of sound would it make? What would it sound like?
3. If you were an animal, what would you be?
4. What would you do if you became the president of your country?
5. If you were a ghost, what would you do?

2. Do you remember Michael from the video Michael's dream job? Complete the sentences about him. They don't have to be true.
